Abandoned Infants Need Our Help

Precious little ones abandoned like the children pictured are unfortunately all too common throughout Mexico. In busy Monterrey, mothers often are not able to care for their children and will abandon them at the gate of The Shelter. Director Martha Rojas has such a heart for these little ones, and accepts all children that come to her. They currently have over 45 infants, toddlers, preschoolers, and elementary school age children that they care for each day. Caring Action's mission in Mexico includes the following:

- ◆ Making sure each child has enough nutritious food and milk every day.
- ◆ Offering a safe and stable home to live in.
- ◆ Providing school uniforms and shoes required to go to school.
- ◆ Recruiting volunteers to come and help with homework, give music lessons, and teach children library skills in their new library.
- ◆ Loading up all the children in several vans and taking them to Sunday School and worship services every Sunday.

By supporting the Mexican volunteers in their efforts to give a hand to the new generations of Mexico, we are making a difference in their lives....one at a time.
